Hon. Laura Taylor Swain,
U.S. District Judge
U.S. District Court Southern District
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Re: Christopher Sanabria

Dear Judge Swain:

We are hereby requesting that the date of the pre-trial conference just ordered in the above noted matter be changed to a different date.

The reason for this request is that September 21, 2007 is the eve of Yom Kippur, a Jewish Holy Day. As a point of information, Jewish Holy Days start on the evening before, i.e. Yom Kippur begins on the evening of September 21, 2007. For those of the Jewish faith that are observant, as is the case in our office, there are significant preparations that are required prior to the observance of this holy day.

We would also like to inform the Court of other Jewish Holy Days since they occur with quite some frequency at this time of the year:

Jewish New Year (Rosh Hashonah) is September 13th & 14th.

Sukkos (Tabernacle) is September 27th & 28th and October 4th & 5th

Once again, we respectfully draw your attention to the fact that Jewish Holy Days begin on the evening before which makes afternoon appearances extremely difficult.

Your courtesies and cooperation and understanding of our situation is deeply appreciated.

Yours truly,

____s/____

STEVEN S. ORLOW
